

WILL NOT COMMENT ON FOOD

MoShane's Deputies Refuse to Talk of the Jail Grub.

SHERIFF PAID GOOD PRICE

Federal Prisoners Complain that the Meals Served in Douglas County Jail Are Not Fit for Any-one in East.

Deputies in the sheriff's office declined to say whether food served to prisoners in the county jail was such as to justify the federal court in sending United States prisoners to other county jails as was done this week. Sheriff MoShane is absent on an extended vacation and hunting trip and none in the office ventured to comment on the federal court's action.

Prisoners held by government authorities complained to Judge Morris that meat and other food infested with maggots was served in the Douglas county jail and at their request were sent to other jails.

Sheriff MoShane is receiving 30 cents per day for feeding each prisoner—nearly three times as much as contractors in the past have been paid—and his total income from the county, including his salary, is more than $50 a day. The board of county commissioners, though worsted in previous legal battles, are still resisting the sheriff's demand for 30 cents per day and have taken the fight to the supreme court on a new point.

Discovered After Sixty Years of Obscurity

In a modest little house on the outskirts of historic old Jamestown, Va., there died recently a very aged but remarkable woman. She had lived in this house since the oldest resident could remember and for over sixty-six years she had received every month a $5 draft on the Bank of England. Her life was spent with her art work, all of her designs and patterns going abroad, most of them to the great mills of England, Scotland and Switzerland.

She was evidently an artist of great ability, for among her effects were found exceedingly rare sketches and paintings. A recent letter bearing the signature of Jane Arden Macfarland, revealed the fact that this mysterious little woman was the grandmother of Jane Arden, "the artist" and creator of the "Imperial Patterns," who was recently presented to the queen of England and was married to the only son of Sir Edward Macfarland, the linen prince of Scotland.

The "Imperial Patterns" were the masterpiece of Jane Arden and were so named by Queen Mary, who adopted them for her court costumes and pronounced them the most beautiful design ever created.

In order to encourage and foster this character of art, this entire sheet of designs have been secured and are now being offered by The Bee at what it costs to distribute them.

The most ordinary patterns of this general class cost 10 cents each. This wonderful collection of 100 designs at 10 cents each would cost more than $10, but with six coupons and 25 cents you can secure this entire collection. This is a real opportunity for every woman who loves art and believes in the beautiful.

Stryker Stays with Live Stock Exchange

The South Omaha Live Stock exchange, through its board of directors, has taken steps to retain its present secretary-traffic manager, A. F. Stryker, who was a candidate for commissioner of the Commercial club of Omaha.

Mr. Stryker has been secretary of the South Omaha Live Stock exchange for the last seven years and is said to have made an enviable record of the handling of exchange affairs, particularly in the railroad rate cases. He is said to have saved the patrons of the South Omaha market many thousands of dollars in the last few years and the exchange does not feel like losing his services. Members prevailed upon Mr. Stryker to withdraw his application Friday afternoon.

The Most Wonderful Boys' Suit Bargain in America

On the Boys' Suit proposition this store is head and shoulders above all competitors—notwithstanding the size of their "ads" and the extravagance of their claims. Ours are hand made garments, made in sanitary shops, made by skilled workmen. We could buy suits made of shoddy materials in tenement houses and basement and buy them just as cheaply as any store and mark them the same prices—if we wanted to. But this is a quality store and we're anxious to extend the circle of our patronage. As a step to that end we're going to offer the one big Boys' suit bargain for Saturday.

Boys' Suits—Many with 2 pairs of overcoats—Norfolk and double-breasted styles in all the popular 1913 colors and fabrics, including Blue Serge. Suits sold all fall for $1.00 to $1.25. Saturday they're in one lot and the choice is yours for—

John Wanamaker said a "quitter" should leave advertising alone.

"If there is one enterprise on earth that a 'quitter' should leave severely alone, it is advertising."

"To make a success of advertising, one must be prepared to stick like a barnacle on a boat's bottom."

"He should know before he begins it that he must spend money—lots of it. 'Somebody must tell him that he cannot hope to reap results commensurate with his expenditure early in the game. 'Advertising does not jerk; it pulls. It begins very gently at first, but the pull is steady. It increases day by day and year by year until it exerts an irresistible power.'—John Wanamaker.
